Re: Letter of agreement between Rights & Democracy and Al-Haq

Dear Mr. Jabarin:

It is our pleasure to inform you that Rights & Democracy (the International Centre for Human Rights and Democratic Development) has approved a grant of CAN $ 10,000.00 for Al-Haq in the framework of its project entitled "Investigating, Documenting and Monitoring Human Rights Violations". We are pleased to support this initiative.

The financial contribution provided by Rights & Democracy covers the period from February 1, 2009 to May 31, 2009. Al-Haq will receive through a bank transfer the funds approved by Rights & Democracy for the above-mentioned project in one instalment. Should you have any difficulty either with the method of payment or the currency used, please do not hesitate to inform us.

Please return a copy of this letter of agreement duly signed. This signed copy and/or the expenditure of the grant will indicate your agreement with the conditions set out in this letter.

We wish to emphasize that the above mentioned funds are to be used to hire, train, and equip qualified investigators of human rights violations. Any changes in the use of these funds from that which was previously agreed upon between Al-Haq and Rights & Democracy must first be discussed with, and approved by Rights & Democracy.

Al-Haq will report back to Rights & Democracy no later than March 31, 2010, using its annual reports as well as its audited financial statements.
